FIGURES ON STEEL RAILS.

Very Weak Points made without any Voucher for the Statements on which they Rest ... What he, Really Proves by them.

Hon, Thomas F. Grady talked some steel reit Free Trade lest night. His talk is given below.

Mr. Grady neglected to give his authority for his figures. Not a working-man who heard him believes it costs gives his bounty to the consumer and throws in 91 cents to boot. Perhaps Mr. Grady will find this explained in his Democratic Campaign Book and give the explanation in his next speech.

He may be able also to tell why it is if "the tariff is a tax" which allows the manufacturer "to sell his rails at lit way to $39. The difference in cost over $39.94 is not to pay you that 27 cents difference, not to encourage American Industries, but is to put a bounty into his pocket. If hearlisthem to-day for $33 he is getting $2.06 bounty upon every too $30.7 that the grasning rob-too of rails into this country for the sells into this country for the sell in the sell in the that allows the man who has the 20 per cent profit in selling his rails at $30.94 to sell his rails at the way to $39. manufacturer "to sell his ralls all the sails. S33 he isgetting $2.06 bounty upon every ber of a manufacturer does not take all wantage of the law and get the $30, instead of contenting himself with $10 at ton less. This wonderous moderation should also be capable of an explanation. Further remarks "the silver-tongned orator" from New York, "put on the $12.44 tax, and that makes it impossible in their gor ditions would, take the price.

$13.44 tax, and that makes it impossible in their conditions would, take the price to get a ton of steel rails into this cour. of steel rails in this country, add on the to get a ton of steel rails into this cours, positive the many and on the difference in the cost try less than $39 04." Who paid that tax? Not the American consumer. It cost about the same then as snow to produce a ton of English raits. If Mr. Grady's English figures are right, he must find some way to account or a little matter of $11 60 conts a ton on the whole importation of 1888.

In 1898 the average price of steel rails in this country was $158 50 - England was supplying us with steel rails. When he had been supplying us with steel rails. and an Injunction to Restrain Mayor Mosby from Appointing the New Board Applied For-The Ap-

CINCINNATI, O., Oct. 27 .- Contrary to general expectation, an application was made this afternoon for an injunction to refrain Mayor Mosby from appointing the members of the Board of City Affaiis authorized by the act of the Legislaturo passed on Friday last. The application was made to Judge Hunt, of the Superior Court, by Louis Remeilt, William Montgomery and Ed Dunham, of the Board of Public Improvements, which was abolished by the same act. The ground for the application is that the ct of Legislature is illegal and void because it is unconstitutional, in being a special act conferring corporate powerr, and in that it limits the selection of us members to the two leading political parties. A temporary order was issued but before it was served the Mayor had made his appointments and administerad the oath to them. The new Board is Thomas G. Smith and T. W. A STARTLING REPORT.

seased Hoga Shipped East From Browns eccived to-night from Brownsville, Pa. gahela river, that 400 head of fat hogs being fattened at Hamburger's distillery, had died and were buried in a trench.

Br. Edward L. Carter, State Veterinary Surgeon, of this city, was called and after a careful investigation pronounced the disease a case of hog cholera of the very worst form.

Mean while, the rest of the drove, some 700, had been driven through the streets of Brownsville, and shipped East, mainly to Philadelphia. It is said many of the hogs dropped dead in the streets, but were picked up and shipped with the living. Many animals owned by the farmers in the vicinity have died. The matter is now in the hands of the State Board of Health, but owing to the delay in notifying the proper officials it is not thought the diseased hogs can be traced.
